NARRATIVE:

Lorenzo Lewis is a documented gang member and has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 23. His convictions include multiple cases of battery with injury, domestic violence with injury, burglary, assault with a deadly weapon causing great bodily injury, weapons violations, receiving stolen property, tampering, petty theft with priors, possession of controlled substances, possession of controlled substances for sale, possession of marijuana, disorderly conduct, driving under the influence of alcohol and disturbing the peace. He has served multiple state prison terms, the longest being a 4 year term for assault with a deadly weapon causing great bodily injury. Lewis was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on March 11, 2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in April 2015 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Lewis qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for battery with injury is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history, gang member status and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
